Section 3A revoked effective September 28, 2009: Rule 31-801.

4 (1) Where the Act or these regulations require the disclosure of the number or percentage of securities beneficially owned by a person and, by virtue of subsection 2(5) of the Act, one or more companies will also have to be shown as beneficially owning the securities, a statement

(a) disclosing all the securities beneficially owned or deemed to be beneficially

owned by the person;

(b) indicating whether the ownership is direct or indirect;

(c) if ownership is indirect, indicating the name of the controlled company or company affiliated with the controlled company through which the securities are indirectly owned and the number or percentage of the securities so owned by the company, is deemed to be sufficient disclosure without disclosing the name of any other company which is deemed to beneficially own the same securities.

(2) Where the Act or these regulations require the disclosure of the number or percentage of securities beneficially owned by a company and by virtue of subsection 2(6) of the Act, one or more other companies will also have to be shown as beneficially owning the securities, a statement

(a) disclosing all securities beneficially owned or deemed to be beneficially owned by the parent company;

(b) indicating whether the ownership is direct or indirect; and

(c) if ownership is indirect, indicating the name of the subsidiary through which the securities are indirectly owned and the number or percentage of the securities so owned;

is deemed to be sufficient disclosure without disclosing the name of any other company which is deemed to beneficially own the same securities.

(3) A company is deemed to be another's holding company or parent company if that other is its subsidiary.

5 (1) The Commission shall have the power to amend from time to time any Form and to prescribe new Forms to be used in circumstances designated by the Commission.

Subsection 5(1) amended: O.I.C. 91-815, N.S. Reg. 157/91.

(2) The Director or the Commission may vary the requirements of any Form or document required to be prepared in accordance with any Form which is required to be filed with him or it, as the case may be, in any particular instance if in his or its opinion such variation is necessary in order to achieve or better achieve the purpose or objective for which the Form was designed or it is otherwise suitable that the Form be varied in the circumstances.

(3) The Commission may prescribe alternative Forms of certificates from those set out in subsections 63(1) and (2) and 64(1) of the Act and the circumstances in which those alternative Forms of certificates may or shall be used.

Subsection 5(3) added: O.I.C. 91-815, N.S. Reg. 157/91.

6 (1) The oath or affirmation referred to in subsection 4(3) of the Act shall be sworn before a Nova Scotia Judge, Barrister, Solicitor, Commissioner of Oaths, Notary Public or such other person as the Minister may determine.

- (2) The oath or affirmation referred to in subsection (1) is prescribed to be as follows:

I, _____ solemnly and sincerely (swear/ affirm) that I will faithfully and honestly fulfill the duties that devolve upon me by reason of my office and that I will not, without due authority in that behalf, disclose or make known any matter that comes to my knowledge by reason of such office. (So help me God).

- 7 Where these regulations specify that the Commission has any power or duty which the Act designates to be a power or duty of the Director, these regulations shall, where so specified, constitute an assignment of the power or duty to the Commission from the Director.

Subsection 7(1) renumbered as Section 7: O.I.C. 91-815, N.S. Reg. 157/91.

Document execution and certification

- 9 Except as otherwise provided in the Act or in Sections 148, 161 or 169,
- (a) every document required or permitted to be filed with the Commission or the Director by an individual that is required to be signed or certified shall
 - (i) be manually signed, and
 - (ii) include below the signature the name of the individual in typewritten or printed form;
 - (b) subject to clause (c), every document required or permitted to be filed with the Commission or the Director by a company or person, other than an individual, that is required to be signed or certified shall
 - (i) be manually signed by an officer or director of the company or person or, subject to clause (d), by the attorney or agent of that person or company, and
 - (ii) include below the signature, the name of the officer, director, attorney or agent in a typewritten or printed form;
 - (c) where a partner signs or certifies on behalf of a professional partnership, the partner is not required to sign his name but if an individual other than a partner signs or certifies
 - (i) the individual shall sign his name manually, and

(ii) the name of the individual shall be included below his signature in typewritten or printed form, and

(d) where a document required or permitted to be filed with the Commission or the Director by an individual, company or person, has been executed by an attorney or agent of the individual, company or person, a duly completed power of attorney or document of authority authorizing the signing of the document shall be filed with the document unless the Director permits the filing of the document without the power of attorney or document of authority.

Coming into force

10 These regulations come into force on the earliest day on which any part of the Act comes into force and shall be effective from that date, unless specified otherwise herein.

Part II - Registration requirements

Interpretation

Sections 11(1)(a) to (n) revoked effective September 28, 2009: Rule 31-801.

11 (1) In this Part

(o) "market value", where used with respect to

(i) a commodity futures contract, means the settlement price on the relevant date or last trading day prior to the relevant date,

(ii) a security means,

(A) where the security is listed and posted for trading on a stock exchange,

(I) the bid price, or

(II) if the security is sold short, the ask price,

as shown on the exchange quotation sheets as of the close of business on the relevant date or last trading date prior to the relevant date, as the case may be, subject to an appropriate adjustment where an unusually large or unusually small quantity of securities is being valued, or

(B) where the security is not listed and posted for trading on a stock exchange, a value determined in accordance with Section 12.

Sections 11(1)(p) to (s) revoked effective September 28, 2009: Rule 31-801.

Clause 11(1)(t) repealed: O.I.C. 91-815, N.S. Reg. 157/91.

Sections 11(1)(u) to (w) revoked effective September 28, 2009: Rule 31-801.

Section 11(2) revoked effective September 28, 2009: Rule 31-801.

12 (1) Subject to subsections (2) to (4), the market value of a security not listed and posted for trading on a stock exchange shall be determined by assigning a reasonable value on the basis of values shown on

- (a) published market reports; or
- (b) inter-dealer quotation sheets;

on the relevant date or last trading day prior to the relevant date.

- (2) The registrant may vary a value from that shown on published market reports or inter-dealer quotation sheets where, in light of all the circumstances, some other value would be more appropriate.
- (3) The Director may require that a different value from that determined under subsection (1) or (2) be assigned, where in light of all the circumstances and in his opinion, some other value would be more appropriate.
- (4) Where no published market report or inter-dealer quotation sheet exists with respect to the security, the security shall be assigned a market value of zero unless the Director agrees otherwise.

Sections 13 to 19 revoked effective September 28, 2009: Rule 31-801.

20 The Commission may prescribe conditions of registration for a person or company or group of persons or companies that are in lieu of or in addition to some or all of the conditions of registration prescribed in this Part or in the regulations where it

- (a) gives prior notice of the proposed conditions to registrants affected;
- (b) affords the registrants an opportunity to be heard; and
- (c) publishes notice in a publication published by the Commission or on the Commission's website of each instance when it so prescribes.

Section 20 replaced effective September 28, 2009: Rule 31-801.

Sections 21 to 25 revoked effective September 28, 2009: Rule 31-801.

26 (1) A bond maintained pursuant to the requirements of Rule 31-103 which is payable to the Minister of Finance for the Province of Nova Scotia shall be forfeited and the amount of it shall become due and owing by the person or company bound by it as a debt to Her Majesty in right of the Province of Nova Scotia where

- (a) any person or company or any partner in case of a partnership, or any officer or employee of any of them, with respect to whose conduct the bond is conditioned has been convicted of an offence

- (i) under the Act or these regulations,
 - (ii) involving fraud or theft or conspiracy to commit an offence involving fraud or theft under the Criminal Code, or
 - (iii) in connection with a transaction relating to securities under the Criminal Code;
- (b) a judgment based on a finding of fraud is given against any person or company or any partner in the case of a partnership, registrant or any officer or employee of them, with respect to whose conduct the bond is conditioned; or
- (c) any person or company or any partner in the case of a partnership or any officer or employee of any of them, with respect to whose conduct the bond is conditioned makes an assignment under the Bankruptcy Act (Canada), is subject to a receiving order under the Bankruptcy Act (Canada), makes a proposal under the Bankruptcy Act (Canada) or, in the case of a company, is subject to a winding-up order under the Companies Winding-Up Act or Winding-up Act (Canada), and that conviction, judgment or in the case of clause (c), where the event therein described is an order, that order has become final by reason of the lapse of time or is confirmed by the highest court to which an appeal may be taken.

- (2) A bond referred to in subsection (1) may be cancelled by any person bound under it by giving to the Director at least three months notice in writing of intention to cancel.
- (3) Subject to subsection (4), a bond referred to in subsection (2) is deemed to be cancelled on the date stated in the notice, which date shall be not less than three months after the receipt of the notice by the Director.
- (4) A bond referred to in subsection (1) shall continue in force and be subject to enforcement and realization with respect to acts or omissions which occurred prior to the cancellation of the bond for a period of two years after
- (a) the lapse or cancellation of the registration to which it relates; or
 - (b) the cancellation of the bond, whichever occurs first and any collateral security posted in support of the bond shall remain on deposit for a similar period of time.

- (5) Where a bond referred to in subsection (1) is secured by the deposit of collateral security with the Minister of Finance and is forfeited, the Governor in Council may, but shall not be obligated to, direct the Minister of Finance to sell the collateral security at the market value thereof by private contract or public sale.

(6) Where by virtue of this section a debt becomes due and owing to Her Majesty in right of the Province of Nova Scotia, the Commission may, on behalf of Her Majesty in the right of the Province of Nova Scotia, take any legal proceedings to recover the debt that it considers fit including proceedings under

- (a) the Bankruptcy Act (Canada);
- (b) the Judicature Act;
- (c) the Companies Winding-up Act; or
- (d) the Winding-up Act (Canada), or any other statute of Canada, Nova Scotia or any other province of Canada which the Commission considers appropriate for appointment of an interim receiver, custodian, trustee, receiver, liquidator or similar official, as the case may be.

(7) The Governor in Council may direct the Minister of Finance

- (a) to assign any bond referred to in subsection (1) which is forfeited and transfer any collateral security posted in support thereof;
- (b) to pay over any moneys recovered under that bond; and
- (c) to pay over any moneys realized from the sale of the collateral security pursuant to subsection (5);

to

- (d) the local Prothonotary of the Supreme Court of Nova Scotia in trust for those persons and companies that may become judgment creditors of the person or company with respect to whose conduct the bond is conditioned; or
- (e) any trustee, custodian, interim receiver, receiver, liquidator or similar official of the person or company with respect to whose conduct the bond is conditioned, as the case may be.

(8) An assignment or payment over directed pursuant to subsection (7) shall be in accordance with and on conditions set forth in any order of the Governor in Council.

(9) Where

- (a) a bond referred to in subsection (1) has been forfeited by reason of a conviction or judgment referred to in clause (1)(a) or (b); and
- (b) the Commission has not received notice in writing of any claim against the proceeds of the bond or any collateral security posted in support of the bond or of those portions of such proceeds that remain in the possession of the Minister of Finance within two years after

- (i) the conviction or judgment having become final, or
- (ii) the registrant with respect to whom the bond was furnished ceasing to carry on business, the Governor in Council may direct the Minister of Finance to pay those proceeds or portion of them to any person or company or to any person or company who on forfeiture of the bond made any payments under it, after first deducting the amount of any expenses that have been incurred by the Commission or the Province of Nova Scotia in connection with any investigation or any expenses otherwise relating to that person or company.

- (10) If the Director finds acceptable the terms of a bond which is payable to the Minister of Finance for the Province of Nova Scotia which are inconsistent with the provisions of subsections (1), (2), (3) or (4) then the terms of the bond shall apply to the extent that they are inconsistent with those subsections.

Contingency fund

27 (1) Every dealer shall participate in a compensation fund or contingency trust fund that is

- (a) approved by the Commission; and
- (b) established by
 - (i) a self-regulatory organization; or
 - (ii) a person or company approved by the Commission.

- (2) The Commission may vary the amount required to be contributed to the fund referred to in subsection (1) by any participant where in its opinion it would not be prejudicial to the public interest to do so, but only where the variation is published by the Commission in such manner as the Commission deems appropriate prior to the variation taking effect.

181 (1) A person or company that purchases or sells securities of a reporting issuer with knowledge of a material fact or material change with respect to the reporting issuer that has not been generally disclosed is exempt from subsection 82(1) of the Act and from liability under Section 142 of the Act, where the person or company proves that

- (a) no director, officer, partner, employee or agent of the person or company who made or participated in making the decision to purchase or sell the securities of the reporting issuer had actual knowledge of the material fact or material change; and
- (b) no advice was given with respect to the purchase or sale of the securities to the director, officer, partner, employee or agent of the person or company who made or participated in making the decision to purchase or sell the securities by a director, partner, officer, employee or agent of the person or company who had actual knowledge of the material fact or the material change, but this exemption is not available to an individual who had actual knowledge of the material fact or change.

(2) A person or company that purchases or sells securities of a reporting issuer with knowledge of a material fact or material change with respect to the reporting issuer that has not been generally disclosed is exempt from subsection 82(1) of the Act and from liability under Section 142 of the Act, where the person or company proves that

- (a) the purchase or sale was entered into as agent for another person or company pursuant to a specific unsolicited order from that person or company to purchase or sell;
- (b) the purchase or sale was made pursuant to participation in an automatic dividend reinvestment plan, share purchase plan or other similar automatic plan that was entered into by the person or company prior to the acquisition of knowledge of the material fact or material change; or
- (c) the purchase or sale was made to fulfill a legally binding obligation entered into by the person or company prior to the acquisition of knowledge of the material fact or material change.

(3) In determining whether a person or company has sustained the burden of proof under subsection (1), it shall be relevant whether and to what extent the person or company has implemented and maintained reasonable policies and procedures to prevent contravention of subsection 82(1) of the Act by persons making or influencing investment decisions on its behalf and to prevent transmission of information concerning a material fact or material change contrary to subsection

82(2) or (3) of the Act.

- (4) A person or company who purchases or sells a security of a reporting issuer as agent or trustee for a person or company who is exempt from subsection 82(1) of the Act and from liability under Section 142 of the Act by reason of clause 2(b) or (c), is also exempt from subsection 82(1) of the Act and from liability under Section 142 of the Act.
- (5) A person or company is exempt from subsections 82(1), (2) and (3) of the Act where the person or company proves that such person or company reasonably believed that
 - (a) the other party to a purchase or sale of securities; or
 - (b) the person or company informed of the material fact or material change, as the case may be,

had knowledge of the material fact or material change.
