If a reporting issuer is in default of a specified requirement, the issuer must still comply with all other applicable continuous disclosure requirements, other than requirements reasonably linked to the specified requirement in question. For example, an issuer that has not filed its annual disclosure statement on time will also be unable to comply with the requirement to file a certification of annual filings under National Instrument 52-109 Certification of Disclosure in Issuers' Annual and Interim Filings. However, failure to comply with a requirement to file an annual disclosure statement in accordance with the requirements of Part 3A of National Instrument 51-102 Continuous Disclosure Obligations does not excuse compliance with other requirements of that instrument such as the requirement to file material change reports in accordance with Part 7 or an information circular in accordance with Part 9..
