[REDACTED]

3. On September 14, 2018, Counsel for the Director of Enforcement for the Commission advised the Commission, in writing, that attempts at effecting service on the Respondents to the addresses in the February 12, 2018 Order have failed, but that service had been successfully effected via personal service on family members of the Respondent Germeil at the following address:

[REDACTED]

4. The Director of Enforcement for the Commission requested, in writing, to vary the February 12, 2018 Order;
5. Service on the Respondents can be properly effected via personal service on the Respondent Germeil and/or his family members; and
6. The Commission has determined that it is not prejudicial to the public interest to issue an order that varies the February 12, 2018 Order.

IT IS ORDERED pursuant to section 151 of the Act that:

1. the February 12, 2018 Order be varied by repealing clause 2 of the Orders and replacing it with the following:
2. Any notice or document required under the Rules to be served shall be sufficiently served on the Respondents at the following address:
